

This adventure was completed by _____,
who was _____ years old on _____.
(Date)

_____ 's

Purple Crayon Adventure

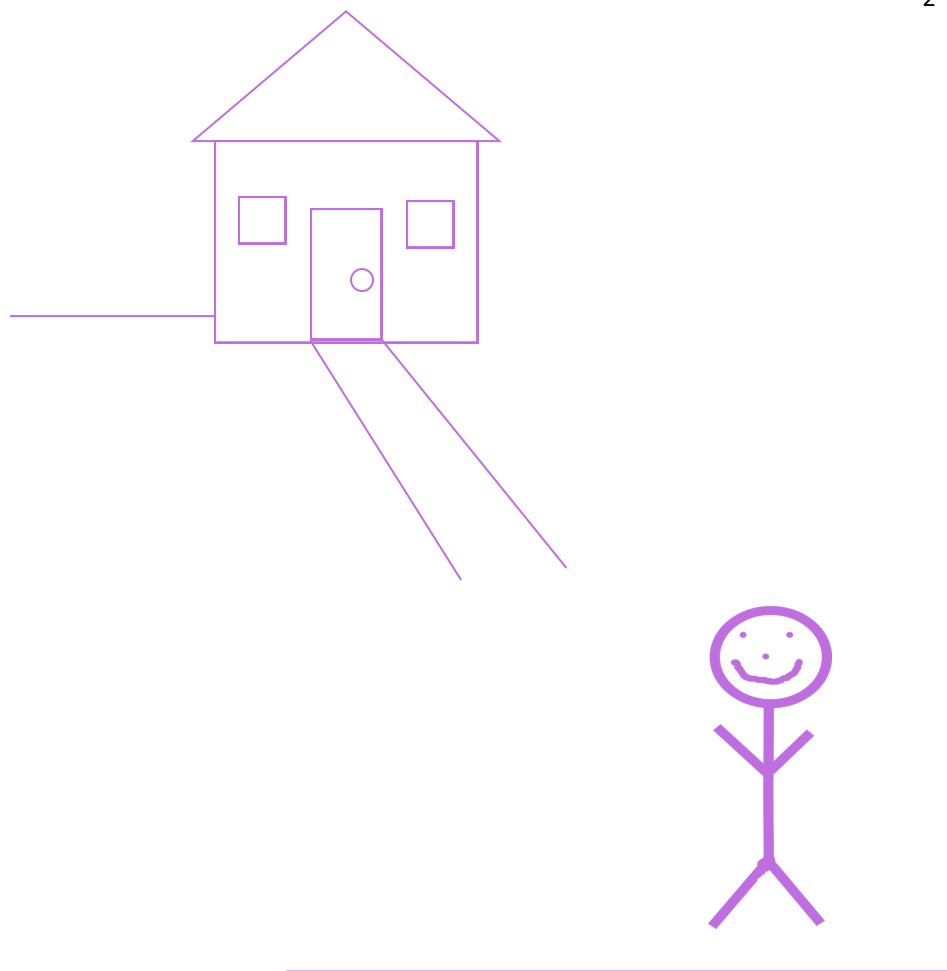

A purple crayon is shown at an angle, pointing downwards and to the right. A wavy, squiggly line of purple color extends from the tip of the crayon.

In the book,

Harold and the Purple Crayon, a boy uses his purple crayon to draw an adventure featuring himself.

Use this book and a purple crayon to complete your own adventure!

One day _____ complained about being bored. Mom said “Don’t sit around complaining.
Go for a walk!”

As _____ walked along, a little _____ came from behind a tree and joined the walk.

They walked a long way. _____
and the little _____ became tired and stopped to rest on a _____ in a park.

_____ decided to draw some beautiful _____ to enjoy while they were resting, when out jumped a scary _____!

_____ quickly drew a _____ to take them home!

The next day _____ went on a walk without being told by Mom. There was a new adventure just waiting to be created!

Use the following blank pages to continue your story or write a whole new one!